Wine Processing: These grapes were harvest and delivered in a gondola. We whole cluster pressed these grapes to maximize fruit and varietal expression. The wine was fermented with R-HST yeast that is tailored to enhance Riesling varietal character. The fermentation was an extended, cool fermentation in a stainless steel tank. The wine was aged in stainless for 6 months prior to bottling.

Tasting Notes: This wine begins with a rich white flower and nectarine profile. As the wine opens, the bouquet picks up a subtle hint of minerality and kaffir lime. On the palate, this wine displays a racy acidity that balances the ripe stonefruit notes. This wine finishes with a hint of mandarin and honey balanced with flinty acidity.
